

YORK UNIVERSITY WINS COLUMBIA RHODE ISLAND STATE, SCORE 23 TO 7

PARKE H. DAVIS TO REPORT BIG FOOTBALL GAMES FOR THE NEW YORK HERALD

THE NEW YORK HERALD announces to its thousands of football readers that Parke H. Davis, Princeton's famous football authority, again will entertain them this fall with his expert reviews of the major football games.

No football writer in America has had the long and varied experience of Mr. Davis. He is regarded by football men more as an institution than as a personality. Thirty-three years ago he was an end at Princeton. Upon graduation he founded football at the University of Wisconsin and later coached at Amherst and Lafayette. For more than a quarter of a century he has been one of Princeton's wisest football counselors and for fifteen years represented that university upon the football rules committee. In the latter capacity he invented and incorporated into the game many of the sport's most popular features. He is the author of one of football's classic books, and for years has been a voluminous writer on football topics. Every active football man in America knows him as the final authority on the history and statistics of the sport. In private life he is a widely known lawyer, the head of a steel industry and a national figure in politics.

Mr. Davis's expert reviews are the greatest of literary traits, combining a highly technical presentation of the game with a sparkling narrative that the inexperienced as well as the experienced followers of the sport enjoy them hugely.

Mr. Davis will report for the readers of THE NEW YORK HERALD the Harvard-Princeton game November 11, the Princeton-Yale game November 18 and the Harvard-Yale game November 25.

Gray's 40 Yd. Run Recalls Sam White's Famous Dash side that of Sam White in Princeton annals, ran the ball back to Chicago's twenty-two yard line.

Here Princeton completed a couple of forward passes which took the ball close to the Maroon's goal. But here Stage's men began fighting fiercely. Ap exchange of kicks finally took the ball to Princeton's 26 yard line. Here the Tigers suffered a misfortune. A Princeton man held and the penalty put the ball but nine yards from the goal. Princeton punted, but the kick was hurried and the ball was Chicago's on its opponent's 29 yard mark. John Thomas had been resting on the side lines, but at this time a hurried call was sent for him. Zorn got six yards. Thomas got three yards. Pryor failed to gain. This left the ball on Princeton's 20 yard mark. Then John Thomas went to work in earnest. In three plunges he went over for a touchdown. Again Pryor failed to kick the goal and, with the score 13 to 7, destiny's mocking laughter was unheard amid the Western cheering. As Princeton kicked off to Chicago's 34 yard line the third period ended.

Now in this proper order we come to the fourth period, which was one of the most thrilling in all modern football history. Before it was over the spectators were weak and worn out. This was a period to talk about for years to come. Pryor, the great Princeton star, was around Princeton's right end for eighteen yards. The Maroon's first forward pass put the ball on its own 44 yard line. Chicago kicked to the 10 yard line, and here the Tigers, who all day were the ones to try spectacular stuff, pulled a play which it had gone right might have been a winner. The man who caught the ball attempted to make a long lateral pass to Cleaves, but Cleaves started too soon, and the ball was passed forward. The result was that the Princeton ball was in the middle of the penalty put Princeton on its 1 yard line.

It has always been the theory that it was the West which went in for the spectacular, and the conservative, and the East which stuck to the conservative, but right here Bill Pryor's pupils pulled a play that was astounding in its audacity. Once more they got away with it. Princeton started a forward pass, and behind its own goal line, and Gorman, picking the ball out of the air and taking Chicago tacklers absolutely by surprise, was thrown by the maroon end, from 38 yard line. Goal for point after touchdown—Madintosh, Weatherdon (2).

Lehigh Shooting Aerials Beats Muhlenberg, 26 to 7

BETHLEHEM, Pa., Oct. 28.—Ripping off long runs and shooting aerials for long distances, Lehigh defeated Muhlenberg by a score of 26 to 7. Startling in with speed Lehigh managed to put a touchdown over in the first period, but lacked the punch in the second, although having the ball twice within the ten yard line. But all this inertia that Lehigh had been showing gathered strength as the third period began and two touchdowns resulted. Lehigh's defense was other in the fourth. Muhlenberg was on the defense except once, when she managed to reach the 25 yard line.

There were many fumbles and many penalties that marred the game at times. Lehigh was several times within striking distance when penalized and forced to punt. Storer, Greer, Harper, Besemer and Henschen played a bangup game. The lineup:
